DECADE OF HEALTHY AGEING

OBJECTIVES

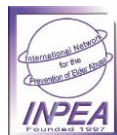

This parallel event will provide context, priorities and direction for the upcoming Decade of Healthy Ageing, as named by WHO. IAGG's regional representatives will highlight the inequalities and disparities faced by older adults at the local, national, and global levels. Regional strategies to be discussed include:

- ❖ National disasters
- ❖ Inadequate public health infrastructure
- ❖ Limited economic circumstances

Speakers will reflect on the successes, best practices, lessons, and progress that work to "... ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages" as outlined in the UN's 3rd Sustainable Development Goals.

SPEAKERS

Chair: T.C. ANTONUCCI, Secretary General; Introduction: J.W. ROWE, President;
IAGG Regional Representatives: F. BOTTA (Chair, COMLAT); I. ABODERIN (Chair, Africa); K. MADDEN (Chair, North America); M. BARBAGALLO (Chair, Europe); J. BYLES (Representative, Asia/Oceania)
